CHAMBER MEETING THURSDAY

Regular general meeting of the Drayton Valley and District Chamber of Commerce will be held in the Council Chamber of the Town Hall at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 6th.

This week, April 2nd to 8th is Chamber of Commerce Week across Canada and the executive of the local Chamber is hopeful that more town and district residents will become aware of the work of the Chamber during the week and show their interest by attending the meeting and becoming active members.

Of particular importance this week will be a decision on whether or not to continue the annual summer event under the name of Klondike Kampers Karnival or switch to a different name.

Western Review Story Gets Quick Results

A small story in The Western Review last week about the need for musicians in the Drayton Valley-Evansburg band brought fast results.

The story mentioned that musicians interested should phone Al McKillop, and before he had read his paper Thursday the phone was ringing. Mr. McKillop informed The Western Review on Friday of last week that four new musicians had been obtained as a result of the news item.

Annual Carnival At Arena Saturday

Carnival Days are here. The Drayton Valley Figure Skating Club will look at Canada through their theme, "Canadian Heritage, 1967". Choreography will depict a cross-Canada look at landmarks, customs, klondike and the oil industry of our town. This fast paced two hour show will be presented in the Centennial Arena on Saturday, April 8th at 2:00 and 8:00 p.m.

Highlights of the show will feature guest performers from Edmonton. The Edmonton Community League will be presenting their klondike number and a duet will be featured by the prairie champion novice winner.

Costumes are numerous and colorful in number for this year's presentation. The costumes were cut out under the direction of Mrs. Gwen Simpson and the material sent home with instructions. Each mother was responsible for their own child's costumes. No one person or organization could undertake to make over 200 costumes.

The instructors for this year are Lynda McMorris, Lyn Burrows, Linda Hinecker and Linda Astle. The community extends congratulations to these girls for the endless amount of time spent in preparing for this event.

To add variety to the carnival, chuckwagon races, broom ball and a queen contest will take place. The entire company will take part in the Grand Finale with a gigantic birthday cake depicting Canada's Centennial.

Seek Reports of Pheasants Released Last Summer

Ken Landers, president of the Pembina Oilfield Fish and Game Association, reports that occasional sightings have been made of the pheasants released last summer. Five hundred birds were released by the Alberta Fish and Wildlife Division in co-operation with the Fish and Game Association.

The F.G.A. is interested in determining how the birds fared through the winter and would appreciate hearing from anyone who sights pheasants in the vicinity of Drayton Valley. Last report received by the club was of six cock birds observed a short distance north of town.

Refering to other upland game birds, Mr. Landers noted that numbers were on the upswing as a peak cycle year approaches. He stated that district wildlife officers have reported big game animals increasing as well as birds.

F.G.A. members are reminded that club jackets are now available. See Al Walton at Al's Sport Shop to order.

Tomahawk Community Library To Celebrate Tenth Anniversary

The Tomahawk Community Library Board held its March meeting in the Library on Wednesday, March 22nd.

It was agreed by the Library Board that we help out the Tomahawk Community Club with the catering of two or three large banquets, to help pay for the dishes which the Tomahawk Community Club have already purchased. The dishes cost $444.

A motion was made that any lady wishing to quit the library board must send in a written resignation.

A motion was made that the Secretary send out to each family in the community through the post office, a flyer advertising Canadian Library Week which is April 15 - 22.

This our library's tenth anniversary and at our next meeting which is on Tuesday, April 25, we are having Open House. Lunch will be served for this special occasion.

In The Legislature

By Mrs. C. R. Wood, M.L.A.

On Tuesday after the Easter Recess, beginning the eighth week in the Legislature Garth Turcott (NDP Pincher Creek-Crowsnest) asked to submit a reply to the statement made last week by E.W. Hinman (S.C. Cardston) who denied any connection with the Airport Hotel and Albertawest Forest Products. Mr. Turcott asked for a judicial inquiry into the matter.

No new evidence was submitted so the House settled down to the Study of Bill 5, an Act respecting Vehicles and Highway Traffic. This Bill of 106 pages--one of the longest Bills presented to the Provincial Legislature this year, repeals and replaces the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act passed several years ago. It consolidates all the amendments to the Act over the last ten years and standardizes the Rules of the Road throughout the Province by altering the present Rules to cover matters dealt with in different ways by the traffic by-laws of different municipalities.

In 1960 the Corneal Transplant Act was passed whereby the eyes of a person could be willed by him for transplanting to another person. Bill No. I provides for the disposition of deceased persons for therapeutic educational or research purposes and is termed 'The Human Tissue Act.' By it any person over 18 years of age may make a binding disposition of his body or any part of it, either in writing or orally in the presence of at least two witnesses during his last illness.

Bill No. 6--Partial Refund of Estate Taxes to Alberta Estates was given clause by clause study. It provides for a rebate of the Provincial portion of Estate Taxes. This has been discussed between the Federal Department of Revenue and Department of Finance and our Provincial Government. As a result officials of the Federal Government have given every indication that this act could become effective starting April 1, 1967.

The Public Accounts Committee met following the ceremony and C.K. Huckvale, Provincial Auditor reported regarding the statement tabled by G. Turcott (NDP Pincher Creek-Crowsnest) last meeting by which an accountants calculation differed by some $15,000 from the report of the Auditor. Mr. Huckvale said, "The calculation is incorrect, incomplete and definitely misleading. No shortage exists in the account whatsoever." He urged the press to give the same headlines correcting the misleading article published last week.

When asked by Hon. A.O. Aalborg, Mr. Turcott stated that when he got the copy of the figures quoted by Mr. Huckvale, he would accept the explanation given.

Wednesday afternoon clause by clause study was made of Bills in the Committee of the Whole Assembly. One of the Bills was an amendment to the Legislative Assenbly Act, making it possible for members of the Legislature to receive the benefit of the Home-owners Tax Discount, without losing their seat in the legislature to take advantage of this Tax Discount.

Just prior to the hour of closing the Session, Premier Manning moved, seconded by Hon. A.O. Aalborg, a Notice of Motion that directs Garth Turcott (NDP Pincher Creek-Crowsnest) to file with Mr. Speaker within 48 hours, any and all specific charges relative to the insinuations he has made, for which he is prepared to assume responsibility together with evidence to justify such charges.

Thursday, the study of Bills continued and Bill 54 amending the School act relative to the clause striking out 26 mills and substituting 28 mills for the Foundation Fund came in for a heated debate by the opposition declaring it was a 2 mill increase in taxation. Also the clause regarding religious instruction in schools was questioned.

Thursday evening session was to have started the debate on the Notice of Motion re Garth Turcott (NDP Pincher Creek-Crowsnest), but the Leader of the Opposition questioned the procedure and Mr. Speaker ruled that the debate on the motion be delayed until Friday.

Mrs. M. Bruner, Correspondent

Easter holidays are over and everyone who were fortunate enough to get away have now come back and are back in the old swing of work.

At the Mazeppa home for the holidays was Mrs. Lil Carlson, at her parents' home, from Vancouver. Travelling to the west for a bit of a rest was Miss Lois Grant, now teaching in Edmonton.

Four members of the two 4-H clubs here went to Spruce Grove to take part in the public speaking contest. One of those travelling to Spruce Grove, Miss Shirley Hutchinson, was an honorable mention winner in the contest. Shirley was also successful with an entry of seed oats at the Calgary Seed Fair, winning a fifth place for herself. An enjoyable smorgasborg meal was put on by the members of the subdistrict FUA in the Wildwood hall last Friday.

Good Time To Get Active

The occasion of Chamber of Commerce Week, Week, April 2nd to 8th, would be an excellent time for non-members and unactive members of the Drayton Valley and District Chamber of Commerce to take stock of the situation and resolve to do their part in ensuring the progress of this vital community organization.

By co-incidence the local Chamber has a regular meeting scheduled for midway through Chamber of Commerce Week on Thursday, April 6th at 8:00 p.m. in the Town Hall. Make it a point to attend.....the Chamber needs active, vocal members prepared to submit ideas, oppose those they think are wrong, and work for the good of the whole area.

No other organization quite fills the needs of the community in the way the Chamber of Commerce can. Without it, a community can die from stagnation.

Have We Learned the Lesson?

National Wildlife Week will be observed this year from April 9th to 15th. This one week of the year which is set aside annually for special attention to conservation takes on added significance in Centennial Year, as we pause to review a century of history and peer expectantly into the future. No other nation is so richly endowed, on a per capita basis, with the resources of farmland, forest, fresh water, open space, unspoiled wilderness, wildlife and natural beauty. These are still the resources which are the foundation of our economy and our social well-being. Conservation of these renewable natural resources is a matter of great importance to every Canadian.

We have not always been wise in our use of resources in the past. It was easy to believe in the myth of inexhaustible abundance, in the early years of nationhood. Who would have believed that the myriads of passenger pigeons could ever be depleted to the point of extermination, that the white pine forests of easter Canada or the coastal forests of the Pacific could be overcut, or that the buffalo could disappear entirely from the prairie grasslands? We have learned that no resource is inexhaustible, but have we learned the lesson well enough?

One need only look to the recent national conference on pollution to find grounds for questioning the wisdom with which we have been using our environment. Massive inputs of capital through the A.R.D.A. program serve as an expensive reminder of misuse of land, capital and human energy.

We are no longer a nation of primary producers, of rural people living close to the land. As we progress toward greater industrialization, with more and more of us living in artificial, urban environments, will we retain sufficient "feeling for the land" to foster plans and programs which will ensure wise use of resources and maintain the quality of our environment? The Canadian Wildlife Federation and its member organizations believe that Canadians can continue to enjoy prosperity and a rewarding quality of life, but only by making a concerted effort to preserve the foundations of our economic and social wealth. Their theme for National Wildlife Week in this Centennial Year--"Conservation in Canada's Second Century"--implies an urgent need to develop a "conservation ethic" to serve as a public conscience in matters relating to our use of the land and its resources.

We do already possess most of the information needed to manage resources wisely. If we continue to let pollution of land, air and water lower the quality of our lives, if we continue to ignore the recommendations of regional and urban planners, if we allow disproportionate distribution of population to cause greater congestion in already crowded regions, if we fail to preserve open space to serve aesthetic and recreational needs, if we continue to use land as a commodity to serve economic and political expediency--it will not be because we were not warned or did not know how to do better.

The answer to the question has particular significance as we enter a second century of nationhood. We must hope that we have reached a state of maturity which will ensure that the answer will be in the affirmative.

Caravan Manager

Alex Jamieson, 49, manager of the Confederation Caravan which will tour Alberta, northeastern British Columbia and the Yukon and Northwest Territories later this year is shown with the lead tractor trailer for the Centennial Commission project. A native of England, he was raised at Aylmer, Quebec, but knows the West well, having spent 10 years at various RCAF bases there during a service career that stretched from 1937 to 1963. The photo was taken at Centralia, Ontario, where caravan personnel are being trained for their six-month trip which begins May 1st.

The Caravan will be making western Alberta stops at Hinton, June 30th; Evansburg, July 1st; Drayton Valley, July 2nd and 4th; and Mayerthorpe, July 5.

MONTREAL--The winner of the first Royal Bank Centennial Award of $50,000 will be selected within the next two months from 135 nominees representing all provinces of Canada as well as the North West Territories, and two nominees from outside Canada, according to an announcement recently by Dr. A.W. Trueman, chairman of the Centennial Award Committee.

"The selection of the winner, Dr. Trueman said, is the sole responsibility of the committee and it will be based on achievements which are considered of such importance that they will contribute to the common good and human welfare of Canada and the world society."

Established by The Royal Bank of Canada as part of its contribution to commemoration of the Centenary of Confederation, the award of $50,000 will be presented annually for at least five years, commencing this year.

Fashion Show Held Saturday

A "Centennial Parade of Fashions" presented by The Bay and a "Centennial Tea" held by the action group of the Drayton Valley United Church Women proved to be a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon.

Held in the Scout Hall on Saturday, April 1st, the combined efforts of a lovely dainty tea and the viewing of this year's fashions made the afternoon a relaxing and entertaining affair.

The hall was tastefully decorated in a Centennial spring motif with tables scattered strategically around the runway and articles used by our ancestors were on display.

Mrs. Bob Doig, who has done a considerable amount of ceramic work, provided a very interesting showing of articles which she has made.

Mrs. Betty Mosdell welcomed the guests and was commentator for the afternoon. Mrs. Irene Braybrook provided background music for the models and Misses Carol Kruger, Julie Willner and Marilyn Campbell entertained.

Sport wear, suits, coats and dresses were modeled by Mrs. H. Shimbashi, Mrs. C. Albert, Carol Kruger, Julie Willner, Marilyn Campbell, Carol and Debbie Mosdell, Gail Brosseau, and Beverley Simpson while Donnie McLean, Ricky Mosdell and Mr. Bob Wilson showed what the young lad and the men are wearing this season.

Farm Guide Worth Dollars

A book on all phses of Alberta agriculture--the Centennial edition of the Alberta Farm Guide--is available to farmers and agricultural advisors, Agriculture Minister Harry E. Strom said recently.

He said the information in the guide, if applied, could increase income on each Alberta farm by thousands of dollars yearly. This would result in a better level of living for farmers and better quality food for all Albertans.

The 240 pages of this centennial edition was prepared by 68 leading agricultural specialists in Alberta and contains 19 sections. Editorial services were provided by specialists from the Faculty of Agriculture, University of Alberta; the Research Branch, Canada Department of Agriculture and the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

Teacher: "I understand you are a magician. What is your favorite trick?"
Billy: "Sawing a girl in two."
Teacher: "Marvelous. Are there any other children in your family?"
Billy: "I have ten half-sisters sisters."

Nurses Hear Interesting Talk by Dr. Eustace

Following a short business meeting on March 8, 1967, in the Nurses Residence, the Drayton Valley Chapter of the Alberta Association of Registered Nurses featured as their guest speaker, Dr. Eustace.

Dr. Eustace, who was the medical doctor for a borstal or detension home for male juvenile delinquents for many years while in general practice in England and who also participated on a British Royal Commission relating to Penal Reform, presented some thought provoking statisitics relating to juvenile delinquency in Great Britain and Western Europe.

In comparison to these countries he mentioned that the problem of juvenile delinquency in Canada does not seem to be as acute, probably because the population in Canada is not as concentrated. It was encouraging to hear that the seeming problem of juvenile delinquency is not unique to the 20th century--in times before Christ there was recorded a similiar concern for the behavior of the contemporary youth of those days and for the future.

Dr. Eustace also related to the nurses some studies which have been done to determine the causation of juvenile delinquency one of which determined that some offenders have a congenital defect of genetic chromatic sex determinants. A very lively discussion followed Dr. Eustace's presentation.

All nurses are invited to attend the next A.A.R.N. meeting on April 12th at 8:00 p.m. in the Nurses' Residence. Guest speaker that night will be Mrs. Pat Sheehan, Home Economist with the Department of Agriculture Rural Redevelopment Plan. Mrs. Sheehan will discuss ARDA and the homemaker program.

The real danger of our technological age is not so much that machines will begin to think like men, but that men will begin to think like machines.

"Say, friend", said the tourist, "What makes these Western Plains so flat?"
"Wa-al" answered the cowboy "I reckon it's cause the sun sets on 'em every night."

Heavy Damage in Wednesday Accident

An accident on Wednesday, March 29th at the intersection of 50th Avenue and 50th Street sent Frank Gilbert of Tomahawk to hospital with superficial injuries.

Two cars, one driven by Thomas Cameron of Rocky Rapids and the other by Douglas King of Swift Current, Saskatchewan, collided in the middle of the intersection.

The force of the collision sent the King car across the street where it crashed into a truck parked in front of Mayhew Motors Ltd. pushing it into the showroom window.

The accompanying photo shows the car driven by Cameron still in the middle of the intersection while a group of spectators examine the damage in front of Mayhew Motors.

QUEEN CONTEST

Six High School students from Drayton Valley and district are this year participating in the Centennial Queen Contest. Of these, one will be chosen to reign as Centennial Queen while the remaining five will act as ladies in waiting.

The girls will be judged on poise and ability as well as on ticket sales.

The Queen and her ladies in waiting will be expected to participate in all Drayton Valley and district Centennial activities as required. The new Queen will be crowned at the Ice Carnival on Saturday evening, April 8, 1967 by last year's Carnival Queen, Miss Valerie Krause.

Proceeds from the sale of tickets will be used to further the Scouting movement and everyone is asked to support the candidate of their choice.

Reveen Show Popular

Reveen provided a very interesting and entertaining evening last Thursday in the Frank Maddock High School.

Demonstrating his control over his memory, extra-sensory perception and hypnotic skill, Reveen kept the audience's attention at all times. Young and old alike listened to his voice and observed his movements as he put his subjects through a variety of suggestions.

Overheard in the supermarket: "Pick out the cereal, Johnny, get any noise you want."

D. V. Highlights

BY MRS EDITH DEBY

Best wishes for future happiness are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Barry Thompson. Mrs. Thompson is the former Miss Anne Oscar.

Master Hal Smith is in the local hospital. He was the victim of a snowball in the eye.

Miss Diane Thompson attended the D.Y.C. Conference held in Holy Trinity Church, Edmonton, during the last three days of Easter Week. Of special interest was a panel discussion on the topic "The High School Drop Out". The panelists were well known Edmonton High School teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Fawcett left last week to make their home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Fawcett's brother, Jim Bartlett, has been living there for the past two years.

Sorry to see Mr. Schipper under the weather.

Little Miss Tammy Sherrow had a few days in hospital when her appendix misbehaved and had to be removed.

Members of Mrs. Delores Coutu's bowling team, the Drop Outs, have asked that their very best wishes be extended to Mrs. Coutu on the occasion of her birthday, April 5th.

Miss Glenda Galloway attended a two-day seminar on youth leadership during the holidays. Miss Galloway is expecially interested in dramatics but the course was not offered because of lack of interest. She was, however, able to take a very interesting course in swimming.

Since this column will not appear next week I should like to take this opportunity of extending my sincere good wishes to Miss Donna Mastre and Mr. Roy Hutchinson, who will be married next Saturday.

No man has a good enough memory to make a successful liar.

Develop New Cereal Varieties

Two new cereal varieties have been developed by the Department of Genetics at the University of Alberta.

One of them, a new barley variety, Centennial, is a high yielding, two-rowed, strong strawed variety of potential importance where lodging is a problem.

The other is a new oat variety called Grizzly. A high yielding plump kernelled type, it is similar to the established variety, Victory, which was also introduced by the University.

Both varieties are best adapted to the black and grey soil zones of Alberta.

School Bonspiel Proves Success

Our high school bonspiel turned out to be a tremendous success. Congratulations to Jim Cathrea, winner of the first event, Melvin Majeau, winner of the second event and Ray Letweniuk, winner of the third event.

We'd like to extend many thanks to the people who donated for our prizes and to the ladies that helped with the banquet.

Everything was a success especially the dance and banquet. These were highly enjoyed and well attended.

We had lots of co-operation from the members of the curling club to collect donations, look after the booth in the curling rink and to prepare for the banquet and dance.

We'd really like to thank the boys who went with Allan Mattoon, president of the club, to collect over $400 worth of donations for the prizes. Special thanks to Mr. Hutton and Mr. Madsen for taking time out to chaperone curling and Paul Berzniuk for chaperoning the dance.

We were very glad to see so many out of town rinks. hope you all had fun and will come back next year.

Royal Bank Back Into Housing, Conventional Mortgages

Many young couples find out early in married life there are two expenses that have to be met each month--shelter and food.

Money spent on food and rent is gone forever, so home ownership soon appears attractive because a build-up of equity in a home is a forced means of saving. When considering buying a home, and except for those with unlimited resources, there are two prime requisites--cash down payment and the necessary mortgage financing.

Incidentally, when looking for a home to buy, it is a useful "rule of thumb" to plan on paying no more than two and a half times the annual gross income of the main bread-winner.

By far the largest part of the purchase price of a home will be borrowed on a mortgage. Mortgage money from the usual sources has been very limited in the past year. Now, according to an announcement by the Royal Bank of Canada, a person who has a steady and assured income can apply to the Bank either for a National Housing Act or Conventional mortgage. This new service has been made possible by the recent revision to the Bank Act and while there is a practical limit on the number of mortgages the Royal Bank can make the mortgage programmes should help more Canadians become homeowners.

The difference between a mortgage under the National Housing Act and a Conventional mortgage, as explained by the Royal Bank, is quite distinct and easily understandable

Under the National Housing Act the Royal Bank will grant a mortgage to an approved applicant for a new building home and the money borrowed can be up to 95 per cent of the lending value. The maximum mortgage obtainable is $18,000.

A Conventional mortgage can be obtained up to $40,000 providing the amount to be borrowed does not exceed 75 per cent of the appraised value. The big difference between the two types of mortgage is, however, in the purpose for which they can be granted. A Conventional mortgage can be used to build a new house or to buy an existing home, whereas a National Housing Act mortgage is limited to new construction only.

The Conventional mortgage can also be granted for refinancing existing mortgages which the Bank explained with this illustration; a person has a first and second mortgage on a residential property. The interest rate on the second mortgage is considerably higher than on the first. A conventional mortgage should be considered provided the overall interest rate on the new mortgage is less than the average of the interest being paid on the existing mortgages.

The local Royal Bank Manager has complete details of the new programs including a comprehensive booklet called "Your Mortgage".

fashion news BY NANCY GAYLORD

FASHION CONSULTANT TO THE 160 SINGER CENTERS IN CANADA.

Leather leads a glamorous night-life this Winter. No longer restricted to the casual, suedes and leathers burst forth with beautiful surprises: Birthday-pink suede curved into a skimmy shape, all bedazzled at neck and hem with silvery sequin frosting; Buttery-soft lavender suede in a romantic sweep of evening skirt, it's glamorous partner -- a man-tailored shirt of delphinium satin; Silvery kid, as supple as silk, shaped to a sliver. Anything wool, cotton or silk can do, leather is doing . . . NOW! The clever seamstress can buy "skins" and sew her own leather fashions.

Co-ordinates are in; Separates are out. So, increase your wardrobe in pairs that do wonderful things for each other. Sewing slacks? Buy fabric for a team-mate jacket, at the same time. A new skirt on your shopping list? Choose a co-ordinate sweater in the same store. Saves time and mistakes!

To press darts smoothly, first press the fold to the tip of the dart by holding as you would for stitching. Open up the fabric and pull slightly as you press the dart in the correct direction. Horizontal darts are usually pressed towards the waistline and vertical darts are pressed towards the centre front or back.

Total cost of accessories should equal the cost of your ensemble. Cheaper accessories will detract. So, if your suit cost $50., the total cost of shoes, handbag, hat and gloves to co-ordinate should be about $50. This is a good reminder when you choose between a suit that coordinates with present accessories and one that requires new ones.

Just for fun are the mad mod fakes. They're cuddly as a lamb, yet wilder than any tiger, in outrageous shades including marigold, cerise, apple and scarlet. Buy by-the-yard to collar a coat or line it completely, to helmet your head in, to pop over slacks après-ski, or to wrap into a cuddly robe.
